On 14 June 2024. The Valentin Sancti Petri Convention Centre, which is the largest in the province of Cadiz, is dressing up this weekend to host, for the first time, an international dance event.

The Flow Latino festival, organised by the international bachata champions Pablo Pérez and Raquel de Castro, will take place from today 14th to Sunday 16th June. The programme of this event, which is expected to be attended by more than 600 people, includes dance workshops, master classes, competitions and dances until the early hours of the morning, where the protagonist will be Smooth Bachata, or Sensual Bachata, a discipline created by Korke Escalona, which today enjoys great international renown.

Pablo Pérez and Raquel de Castro have been a dance couple since 2014. For many years they have participated in national and international competitions, winning important awards such as 1st place in BachatArte Spain 2014 and BachatArt International 2015; and 1st place in BachataStars International 2016, among others.

Those interested in participating in this lively festival can still do so by purchasing their tickets here.
